a Mensa Regional Gathering

HalloweeM

October 31—November 1-2, 1975

Chicago, Illinois

THE THEME: Mensa takes a look at the unusual, the weird, the far-out, the amusing. Accent on fun, with a little something extra to think about.

THE PLACE: Sheraton O'Hare Motor Hotel, 6810 North Mannheim Road, Rosemont, Illinois. Near to O'Hare Airport, features free parking, courtesy limousine from airport, health club, sauna, indoor pool, discotheque, 24-hour coffee shop. (See map.) All major credit cards accepted.

THE PROGRAM: Friday, October 31: Registration from 9:00 AM; Hospitality Suite from 4:00 PM. Cash bar from 9:00 PM to 2:00 AM. HalloweeM Party with traditional and not-so-traditional games. Bring your own costume (optional) or decorate a domino (masks furnished, with fixin's). Prizes and surprises.

Saturday, November 1: Meetings on Spelunking, International Women's Year, Individual testing of E.S.P. Presentation on alternative schooling, with documentary film, affective training session, demonstration lab center.

Luncheon (crêpes à la reine) with speaker Mary Lou McCool on Thaumaturgy, related topics. Japanese Arts and Crafts. Psychic Fair, with speakers on Paradimensional Phenomena; demonstrations of astrology, tarot, palmistry, group hypnotism; personal consultations with brief "message-type" readings.

Cash bar cocktail hour. Banquet (Caesar salad, sirloin tips) with speaker Dr. David R. Saunders, "Would You Believe, the Ghost is One-Third of a U.F.O.?"

World premier of "Dark Corner on the Late Shift," a one-act comedy by Donald Abramson (Rated X). Parties, whatever.

Sunday, November 2: Open rap session: meet LocSecs and LocTypes, Editors, Proctors, etc.; everyone welcome. Brunch (scrambled eggs, steak) with speaker Ira Kersh, who will exhibit and demonstrate Oriental musical instruments. Hospitality Suite open until --?

☐ I plan to arrive earlier than 9:00 AM on Friday, October 31.

☐ I plan to stay past 6:00 PM on Sunday, November 2.

IMPORTANT: If you choose to call or write instead of using the hotel reservation form, be sure to specify you are a part of the Mensa RG. This will assure you a room in the same section with other Mensans and also will inform the hotel of how many rooms we actually use, which will help them plan their services.
