SUNDAY, continued

1:00 PM Salon III: An Evening with the Universe — Gordon Saul. Gordon, who became interested in dynamic communication through media combination while still in high school, has produced several major multi-media programs which have been presented throughout the Chicago area. Today's presentation combines celestial art, photography, music, and poetry in an attempt to portray some of the beauty and wonder of our perceivable universe. (If you must leave while this program is in progress, please do so quietly.)

1:30 PM Tours leave from Tower foyer:

C. John Hancock Observatory and Water Tower Place Shops

D. Field Museum or the Oriental Institute

Until 5:00 P.M. Hospitality Suite and Game Room open

In the Hospitality Suite:

Steve MacDonald, palmist and student of the occult, will give a limited number of readings. Serious inquiries only.

AND

Charades will be played as a spectator and participatory sport. There will be a flip chart for the audience.

FRIDAY, October 26

1:00 PM Registration opens in the Tower foyer.

1:30 PM Tours leave from Tower foyer.

A. Museum of Contemporary Art and Near North Art Galleries

B. Spertus Museum of Judaica or the Art Institute of Chicago

4:00 PM Hospitality Suite: (Tower Room 9603) opens and will remain open most of the time throughout the weekend.

6:00 PM Game Room: (Tower Room 2620) opens and will remain open most of the time throughout the weekend.

8:00 PM Tower Salons C and D: Ye Olde Tyme HalloweeM Party! Costumes (optional); prizes; the Incomparable String Game; Mingo; People ScraMble; mixed-doubles sack race; refreshments; cash bar.

After the Party: Hootenanny — Larry Leeb. Stay where you are when the party ends and enjoy one of Chicago Mensa's favorite monthly events. Larry is bringing his regular Hootenanny gang to the RG and it will be terrific.

AND

Hospitality Suite reopens serving free beer, wine, non-alcoholic beverages, cheese, and snacks.

SATURDAY, October 27

9:00 AM Registration desk opens in Tower foyer.

9:15 AM Salon IV: Continental breakfast for all the early risers. The early bird gets the sweet roll and coffee.

10:00 AM Salon IV: Reggie Ezell, the Chairman of the Board of the Chicago Calligraphy Collective, will give a slide presentation on calligraphy.

10:00 AM Salon III: "What's Mensa Done for You Lately?" — A rap session with three AMC members: Roy Saper, Second Vice Chairman; Jacquie Gentry, Regional Vice Chairman; and Ray Martin, AMC Services Consultant and former Chicago LocSec

12:00 Noon Salons C and D: Buffet Lunch
Our Mensa Birthday Recognition
Speaker: Gabe Werba, AMC Chairman — "The State of Mensa"

2:00 PM Salon III: George Schumann of the Chicago Architectural Foundation and the Society of Architectural Historians. George, who is very well known for his historical tours of Chicago, has prepared a slide presentation tour of some famous Chicago landmarks.

2:00 PM Salon IV: What's That Melody? — Ray Martin. Our annual Ray Martin musical quiz, back by overwhelming demand.

3:15 PM Salon III: Hypnotism — Lee Cooper. Lee is a practicing hypnotherapist, the coordinator of the national Hypnosis SIG, and a frequent attraction at RGs across the country. Here's your opportunity to learn the whys and wherefores of this fascinating subject.

3:15 PM Salon IV: Trivia Quiz — Jacquie Gentry (with a possible guest appearance by Harper Fowley).
Two quizzes will be conducted. First Harper's notorious Pruriency Quotient Quiz to determine what you know and don't know about sex. Then a special Isolated M Trivia Quiz.

4:30 PM Salon III: "Solar Energy and Its Alternatives" — Bill Corcoran, a senior industrial analyst with the Solar Energy Research Institute in Colorado, will give a presentation with film and slides. While associated with the Indianapolis Center of Advanced Research, he authored studies on gasohol and energy requirements.

4:30 PM Salon IV: Armchair Treasure Hunt — Jay Smith, Mensa of Illinois LocSec and Fearless Leader of the Art Lovers' Booze and Marching Society.
This event and its creator have survived all attempts at extinction. Its addicts say there is nothing that compares with it. Its detractors agree, saying, "Thank God!"

6:00 PM Salon B: Cash Bar

7:00 PM Salons B, C, and D: Banquet
Introduction of guests
Recognition of 15-year members
Speaker: Charles M. Fallon, immediate past AMC Chairman, National Gifted Children Coordinator. His topic: "Joseph's Coat of Many Colors"

10:00 PM Salons B, C, and D: Dance to the music of Moondance, with lovely lead singer Pandora Darson. (Cash bar will remain open.)

10:00 PM Salon III: Misty Bleu — The songbird of Mensa returns to Chicago and each year is better than the last. If you have never heard Misty, stop in. You won't leave. No smoking please.

12:00 Midnight: The Joke-off, at a room party to be announced. The Second Annual Mensa joke-telling contest. Last year's winner was Colleen Lowry of Cleveland.

Hospitality Suite and Game Room will be open throughout the evening. Check the notice board in the registration area for information on room parties, orgies, and other happenings.

SUNDAY, October 28

9:00 AM Quintathlon plus One
Al Potter, Mad Gamesman of Chicago Mensa and founder of the National Engineers in Mensa SIG. Al also coordinates the local Procrastinators' SIG — when he gets around to it.
